

JORGE CONDE [Barcelona (Spain), 1968]

Visual artist

Holder of a Bachelor's Degree in Fine Arts (BFA) from the University of Barcelona (UB), he studied Visual Arts at the University of California, San Diego (USA) and the Chelsea College of Arts and Design in London (UK), where he worked as resident artist with a grant awarded by the UB. He was later resident artist at the Siqueiros Museum in Cuernavaca (Mexico) and, more recently, at the Royal Academy of Spain in Rome with the MAEC-AECID Visual Arts Grant for the period 2015-16.

His work deals with the excesses of contemporary hyperconsumption society and the relations of power that help support it, its intrinsic voraciousness and capability to produce fake narratives (fictions), utopias, ethically-dubious policies, excluding geopolitical spaces, segmented identities and extremely complex social roles. Over the years his practice has taken a conceptual turn, placing itself in positions of greater ethical, social and ecological commitment, with a deep concern for humanitarian crises, collective memory, the social, landscape and environmental impact derived from certain policies and attitudes quite common in late capitalism, and the stories told to justify them. With diverse techniques and languages -photography, video, installation, sound art, cartography, texts and archival processes- and through the use of more or less truthful hybrid strategies, his projects function as ordered, communicating universes, always driven by an ethical-aesthetic reflection, and a critically-constructive essayistic zeal.

His artistic practice has been recognized and supported by institutions such as the Spanish Ministry of Culture, the Catalan Regional Government, the Spanish Agency for International Development and Cooperation (AECID), the National Council for Arts and Culture (CoNCA), the Bertelsmann-Planeta Foundation, the Bancaja-Bankia Foundation, the National Institute of Fine Arts (INBA) and Morelos State Autonomous University (UAEM) in Mexico, and the Museum of Contemporary Art in Rome (MACRO), among others.

He has held numerous solo and group exhibitions in different countries (Germany, USA, France, Great Britain, Spain, Italy, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Portugal, etc.), in public and private institutions such as the Siqueiros Museum in Cuernavaca (Mexico), the Cervantes Institute in Berlin (Germany), the IVAM and Centre del Carme for Contemporary Culture in Valencia (Spain), Tabacalera, the San Fernando Royal Academy of Fine Arts, the Bertelsmann Foundation Space and the Tomás y Valiente Center for the Arts in Madrid (Spain), Arts Santa Mònica and the Círculo de Lectores Cultural Center in Barcelona (Spain), The Museum of Contemporary Art (MACRO) and Royal Academy of Spain in Rome (Italy), Tinglado 2, the University Rovira i Virgili (URV) and the Museum of Modern Art (MAMT) in Tarragona (Spain), the Casal Solleric in Palma (Spain), Quinta das Cruzadas Art Center in Sintra (Portugal), The Mandeville Center for the Arts in San Diego (USA), etc.

He has also participated in relevant festivals, fairs and events of the international contemporary art scene (PHotoEspaña, ARCO Madrid, Art Miami, Art Philadelphia, AAF London, the Remo Brindisi festival in Ferrara (Italy), SCAN in Tarragona (Spain), the XVI Biennial of Contemporary Photography in Córdoba (Spain), ArtExpo California in San Francisco (USA), etc.). He has been included as part of the curated archives of artists and creators A*DESK promoted by the Institut Ramon Llull in Barcelona, I'IRRADIADOR, promoted by the CA Tarragona and Lo Pati Centers for the Arts, the CENDEAC in Murcia (Spain), Arte & Artes in México City, MACRO and the Royal Academy of Spain in Rome (Italy).
